

2022 ANNUAL IMPACT REPORT

PASADENA HUMANE

dear friends,

Thanks to you and many other animal lovers like you, we proudly celebrate our 120th anniversary this year. Since 1903, Pasadena Humane has been a refuge of compassion and care for our community's most vulnerable animals.

Our organization has a long and rich history with deep roots in the communities we serve. As I look back on 2022, I'm proud of all we accomplished together. We continue to lead the way by providing essential lifesaving programs and services for animals in need.

The past year has not been without its challenges. More pets entered the shelter in 2022 than in the previous two years. Unfortunately, we know that even more animals are in danger of losing their loving homes because of growing economic uncertainty.

We are committed to providing the best care possible to help abandoned, abused, and neglected animals find new homes. One of the many ways we've achieved this is by becoming a Fear Free Shelter.

Our team is trained to reduce anxiety and stress for the animals through gentle handling techniques, enrichment programs, and skilled behavior support. Pets who are less stressed and anxious stay healthy and ultimately move to their new homes more quickly.

With your help, we continue to provide transformative veterinary care for sick, injured, and ill animals. In addition to the treatment provided for thousands of shelter animals by our five full-time veterinarians, we have formed partnerships with specialty veterinarians to address more complex medical issues.

In our 2022 Impact Report, you will read of many other ways we promote animal welfare, including a focus on humane education for children to teach the importance of kindness to animals, as well as wildlife education for people of all ages to learn how to peacefully coexist with our wild neighbors.

Pasadena Humane has always been more than a shelter. We are part of the fabric of our beloved community, and with your generosity, we will continue to be for the decades to come.

With heartfelt appreciation,

Dia DuVernet
President & CEO

compassion & care for all animals

For 120 years, Pasadena Humane has led the way toward a more compassionate and caring community for all animals. Pasadena Humane is more than just a shelter. We are an animal resource center for the pets and people of our community. Our lifesaving programs and services help animals in need and strengthen the relationships between pets and the people who love them.

SEBASTIAN,
ADOPTED 2023

CHARLIE GETS A SECOND CHANCE

When Charlie arrived at Pasadena Humane, he had the worst case of hip dysplasia our veterinarians had ever seen. Every step he took caused him immense pain. Without a full hip replacement, Charlie's prognosis was grim. Despite everything he was going through, Charlie had a loving spirit and a joyful personality. Thanks to our generous donors, Charlie got his lifesaving surgery and was adopted into a loving home, where he now goes by the name Batman.

ALEXANDER, ADOPTED 2022

love starts here

We find new homes for thousands of our community's most vulnerable animals every year. And it's not just dogs and cats available for adoption. Rabbits, pocket pets, reptiles, birds, and more are waiting for new families. In 2022, an 8-month-old pot-bellied pig named Alexander (pictured on page 5) found a new home! All the adorable pets for adoption are listed on the Pasadena Humane website, which is updated throughout the day with new arrivals.

HOPPER, ADOPTED 2023

TEACHING BETTY TO TRUST

When eight-year-old Betty first arrived at Pasadena Humane, she was timid and fearful. With patience and dedicated care, her true personality began to blossom. Betty quickly won over the hearts of our staff and volunteers. She loved to play and roll around on her back. And she was an expert at showing off her basic commands — sit, down, and stay. We didn't give up on Betty and after nearly eight months at the shelter, she found a wonderful, loving home.

RU, ADOPTED 2017

fostering a bright future

Many animals coming to Pasadena Humane benefit from the love and warmth of a foster home. Our foster volunteers help raise orphaned kittens, give dogs a much-needed shelter break, and provide temporary homes to critters like rabbits and guinea pigs. Fostering can also be a great way to see if a pet is a good match before you adopt. Most of our longer-stay pets, particularly large breed dogs, are available for an adoption trial via our "Foster-to-Adopt" program.

ADOPTED 2023

BRINGING UP BELLE

When Belle and her five siblings were found as strays, they were barely three weeks old. Luckily, multiple foster volunteers stepped up to take in these tiny orphans. Allegra, one of our veteran foster volunteers, cared for Belle and her brother Sebastian for many weeks. She syringe-fed them to keep their weight up and taught them how to eat solid food. Belle, now eV, is a year old and thriving in her forever home!

LINCOLN, ADOPTED 2023

helping pets return home

At Pasadena Humane, our goal is to get lost pets home as quickly as possible. A current ID tag and microchip are a lost pet's best ticket home. All animals that come into our care — whether at the shelter or in the field — are immediately scanned for a microchip. Our Animal Control Officers even offer pets with current identification a free ride home. It's essential to update your pet's ID when you change your phone number or address, including contacting your pet's microchip company!

BUDDY GOES BACK HOME

A concerned neighbor found Buddy the corgi walking down the street by himself. Thankfully for Buddy, the neighbor called Pasadena Humane, and an Animal Control Officer arrived shortly thereafter. Our Officer scanned the dog for a microchip but could not find the information needed to return Buddy to his home. Buddy was transported to Pasadena Humane. Meanwhile, the neighbor who found Buddy assisted by posting pictures of Buddy on his social media to alert the neighborhood. Happily, Buddy was reclaimed by his family the next morning. It was a true community effort to get Buddy back home!

LUNA, RETURNED HOME 2023

saving lives in the community

Our dedicated Animal Control Officers save lives out in the community every day. They investigate suspected cases of animal cruelty, help rescue pets from dangerous situations, respond in times of natural disaster, and offer resources and information to pet owners. We continue to provide animal care and control services for 11 local areas — Altadena, Arcadia, Bradbury, Glendale, La Cañada Flintridge, La Crescenta-Montrose, Monrovia, Pasadena, San Marino, Sierra Madre, and South Pasadena.

RABBITS RESCUED ON A HOT SUMMER DAY

A Pasadena Humane Animal Control Officer was completing a call near Lacy Park in San Marino when a concerned citizen flagged him down. The good Samaritan had just found a large wire crate near the tennis courts containing twelve rabbits of varying ages. Attached to the cage was a sign simply reading, “Free Rabbits.” Our ACO immediately transported the rabbits back to the shelter where they were checked out for injury and illness. Thankfully, all the rabbits were healthy and well-socialized. They all quickly found new homes.

a resource for all

Pasadena Humane is proud to be an animal resource center serving all the pets and people in our community. Our goal is to provide access to programs, services, and information that help keep pets happily in their homes where they belong. Our Helping Paws program offers pet support services including a pet food pantry, veterinary vouchers, temporary boarding, and financial assistance for spay/neuter, vaccinations, and microchips.

HORUS STAYS WITH HIS LOVING FAMILY

A senior couple reached out to us for help because they were having trouble making ends meet. They found themselves supporting their grandchildren and their four senior cats while living on a fixed income. We provided them with food and assistance for their cats, including Horus, pictured here. They recently shared, “Thank you SO much! Helping Paws has made it possible for us to continue to enjoy our four kitties during this time of our lives. My mind is boggled by how much love a little 7-pound cat can provide.”

peaceful coexistence with wildlife

Guided by a vision of communities peacefully coexisting with wildlife, Pasadena Humane provides year-round wildlife education and resources. Our in-house experts offer coyote safety workshops, lead community presentations on wildlife issues, and curate a wildlife resource library on the Pasadena Humane website. Our text-based Wildlife Helpline supports and guides community members who need assistance with wild animals that may be injured, ill or orphaned.

INJURED PIGEON, CARED FOR IN THE SANDRA J. GOODSPEED WILDLIFE CENTER

ORPHANED OPOSSUM RETURNS TO THE WILD

This tiny, orphaned opossum came into our care after a good Samaritan texted our Wildlife Helpline. With supportive care from our staff (and lots of delicious food), the opossum grew up big and strong, and was returned to the wild two months later.

connecting with our community

In 2022, our Humane Education program returned to offering fully in-person learning opportunities for kids. At our Junior Vets Summer Camp, children learned about animal behavior, veterinary medicine and wildlife while meeting furry and feathered friends at the shelter. Our in-person dog training classes also returned in 2022, offering basic obedience, puppy manners, reactive rovers classes and more.

CHEWY FINDS A NEW HOME

Chewy, a 4-year-old terrier, was a little shy when he first arrived at the shelter but soon loved the attention of our staff and volunteers. In October, he participated in a mobile adoption event with our partners at Sierra Subaru, thanks to a grant from the ASPCA & Subaru Loves Pets. On the day of the big event, Chewy eagerly boarded the Wiggle Waggle Wagon, our mobile adoption RV. Crowds were waiting as our mobile adoption team pulled up at the event. Chewy plowed into the center of people, happily greeting everyone. He was adopted within the first hour of the event and is now loving life!
